Care Outside a Hospital Can Result in Cost Savings

When a medical need arises, many people rush to a hospital emergency room. But studies show that patient needs would usually be better served at alternate medical sites, such as urgent care centers. Not only is the cost substantially lower, but the wait is generally much shorter. Also, the misuse of emergency rooms is part of the overall increase in healthcare costs. Here are some facts that employers may want to pass along to their employees to help them make better choices.
